PARIS, July 2.-The Germans are ounter attacking desperately along the whole front extending from Arras porth to Ypres, official despatches reported this afternoon.

The British positions around Ypres are being subjected to a terrific bombardment. Thousands of heavy exlosive shells have been hurled against the English trenches in the last twenty-four hours. The artillery attack a certain points northwest of Ypres is being followed by massed infantry attacks and attempts to storm the Engish positions.

Thus far, this afternoon's official statement reported, the enemy's attacks have been repulsed, the British standing their ground with great gallantry.

Advancing from La Bassee, Prusian troops attempted to storm the English positions in the brickyards along the Bethune Road. Their first charge carried them close to the British works, but they were thrown back in confusion by the Britons gunfire. Huccessive attacks falled to gain ground, the first charge having in Advance Toward

Berat.

ROME, July 1 (vin Paris July 2) .despatch from the Tribune from Antivari, Montenegro, says two large Greek bands are advancing toward Berat, Albania, after occupying the villages along the way.

Serbian forces are marching across Central Albania to effect a junction with the Montenegrins in a combined assault on the seaport city of Alessio. according to advices to the Montenegrin Legation this afternoon. WASHINGTON, July 2 .- Greek officials here expressed the belief today that the reported occupation of parts of Albania by Greek troops, if authentic, referred to border raids by irregulars. No official notice of any such military activity has reached the legation. It was pointed out that if Greece decided to enter the war she would declare herself openly as belligerent, and if she remained neutral she would not run the risk of incurring unfriendly criticism from any of the belligerent nations.

The fact that Albania has been considered in some quarters as under the turisdiction of Turkey since the uprising under Turkish leadership would make it possible for the latter country to seize the invasion of Albania as a pretext for a declaration of war against Greece. Official despatches to the Greek Legation state that the King, whose condition is greatly improved, will leave shortly for his country place in the vicinity of Athens.
